New Web Menu

After more than 6 years using the same menu, it's time for a change. The new menu has a horizontal menu which allows better use of the screen space. The new menu is called a "dropdown" menu and was written in the latest computer language.

Carl Pate has designed a section to explain some of the early Ford History. It includes a family tree of early models, the dates of early milestones, success of the early cars, details of the early factories and development of early models.

In addition, Carl developed a "Storyboard" for each of the models.
