I Forgot My Password!

The administrator can not see anyone's password or change anyone's password. If you are using the same email address when you registered, you can change your password with the procedure below.

If you have changed E-mail addresses, simply re-register to use the forum with a new name and your new E-mail address.

1. How do I Login if I forgot my Password?

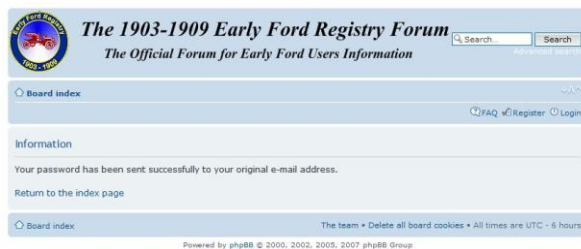

2. Enter your Username and your best guess of a Password. If the guess is incorrect, this screen will be displayed. Click on the "I forgot my Password".

3. Enter your Username and E-mail address. Then click submit.

4. This message will be displayed. Check your E-mail for a message with a new password. You must click on the link in the E-mail to activate the password.

5. You can change this password yourself via the profile page.

I've lost my password!
Don't panic! While your password cannot be retrieved, it can easily be reset. Visit the login page and click I've forgotten my password. Follow the instructions and you should be able to log in again shortly.
