Newsletter Special Edition – Annual Index

by Dave Dunlavy, Newsletter Editor

We have published a cumulative index of Newsletter articles every year in the Spring issue of the EFR Newsletter. It has gotten so large it would require 3 pages to print this year. The solution was to make a Special Edition of the Newsletter with the complete index in it.

The Special Index Edition is located in the Members Area of the website. This link will take you directly to the Index - <http://earlyfordregistry.com/newsletters/newsletterindex2012.pdf>

When the Index is displayed on your screen, you may print a copy of it for use at your leisure.

We hope you enjoy the capability of being able to refer to articles. If you have any questions, please contact me for help – Dave@EarlyFordRegistry.com or 563.387.3736

Newsletter Spring Edition is Coming

If you have anything you want to sell - - or anything you want to buy - - the For Sale/Wanted section of the Newsletter is for you. We are working on the Spring Issue of the Newsletter right now. I will be published about February 15th.

Also if you have an idea for an article, we'd like to know about it also. If you need some help getting your ideas down on paper, please call me and we might be able to help you with that.

We like to publish pictures in the newsletter. It's a great place to record your history – or the history you have discovered. In any case, if you have an idea, we want to hear about it.

We're looking forward to hearing from you.
