London to Brighton Picture

picture furnished by John W Biggs, EFR 2
description by Dave Dunlavy, EFR 41

This picture was taken by professional photographer Roger Taylor. John W Biggs secured his permission for us to use it. I used Paint++ to lighten it up.

The picture captures the real feel of the moment. It is cold, always very damp, sometimes misting or raining. The weather doesn't ruin the mood. The 400 plus very old vehicles will be making their way through London's streets and byways. It is always exciting for the folks in the vehicles and thousands watching along the way.
